Carol

She is an Amazing Mom because she has been there for me through many hard times. When I had my triplets, she was there by my side at the hospital, taking care of all three in the NICU and helped me day and night when I brought them home for the hospital. I never had to ask for help. She is always there making dinners for my family, taking care of my older daughter, running to the hospital at all times to feed the babies as they were only 1 lb, 2 lbs, and 4 lbs. They needed a lot of extra care, special medicines, formulas, etc. Both my mother and I were diagnosed within three days of each other with breast cancer. The last year has been a nightmare for both of us. However, my mother was more worried about me than herself. She helped me take care of my kids (triplets and a 13 year old) while I went through surgery, and chemotherapy. I don't know what I would have done without her. She put her love and concern for me over herself. I couldn't ask for a more loving, caring mother. I know it hurt her more to see me go through this than herself. She would always say, "I would do anything so you didn't have to go through this pain." Even though we went through everything together, I know it affected her most worrying about me. She is everything a mother can be and much, much more.
